EARLY

★ FREE ACTIVITY

★ 9AM ANTIQUE HUNT

Grand Gundagai Antiques Auction And Street Market, Sheridan St, Gundagai; 9am-2pm, auction starts 11am, free, 0439 672 213

An antique always feels more of a treasure if you discover it in a country town. Head to Gundagai, uncover some gems and be tickled pink with your shopping prowess. While there you can also inspect the town's longest-standing building, the Old Mill, open for the first time in 30 years.

★ 9AM STAMP FAIR

Wagga Stamp & Coin Fair, Sturt Primary School Hall, White Ave, Koorringal; Saturday and Sunday, 9am-4pm, free, 0413 965 388

It took 12 years after federation for state postmaster generals to agree on a design for a national stamp. That stamp – a kangaroo on a map of Australia – will be one of the most valuable on display at this stamp and coin fair. Dealers will travel from far and wide to display their wares.

★ 10AM KIDS' FESTIVAL

KidsFest Shellharbour, Little Park, Addison St, Shellharbour; 10am-2pm, free, 4221 6169, kidsfestshellharbour.com.au

Primary school-aged children will go wild at this festival, which is just for kids. Help make a giant seahorse for the parade (scheduled for 1pm) and watch skipping stars, circus entertainers and belly dancers.

10AM STEAM FIELD DAYS

Oil, Steam And Kerosene Field Days, Campbelltown Steam And Machinery Museum, 86 Menangle Rd, Menangle Park, near Campbelltown; Saturday and Sunday 10am-4pm, adult $10, child $5, family $25, 0417 215 513, csmm.com.au

Mechanical marvels will wow engineering enthusiasts at the Campbelltown Steam And Machinery Museum today. Ride a wagon and watch tractor races and steam threshing. The museum is open to the public only twice a year and is home to antique earthmovers, military vehicles and vintage cars. Brrrr, brrrr!

10AM BABIES PROMS

Lah-Lah's Adventures, Sydney Opera House; 10am, 11am, noon, $19, babies over one must have a ticket, 9250 7777, sydneyoperahouse.com

A tiny show for tiny tots. Nick Jr's Lah Lah's Adventures specialises in teaching musical appreciation to children aged from 2-5. Let your children get an early start on the styles of pop, jazz and classical in this short 35-minute show for little attention spans. Characters include a dancing double bass.

★ 10.30AM PIGEON RACE

Riverstone Festival, Sam Lane Community Complex, Pitt St, Riverstone; festival 9am-3pm, pigeon release 10.30am, free, riverstonefestival.com.au

Flock to the Riverstone Festival for the local Pigeon Racing Club's release of more than 500 birds. Then listen out for the siren that marks the start of the parade featuring locals dressed as historical characters. There will be more than 100 stalls selling all types of goods as well as games for kids.

11AM MEET JULIE GOODWIN

Narooma Oyster Festival, Riverside Drive, Narooma; signing 11am-noon, festival 9am-3pm, adult $5, child $2, 1800 240 003, narooma.org.au/oysterfestival

Catch MasterChef winner Julie Goodwin signing copies of her book, Our Family Table, at the Narooma Oyster Festival. Then stick around for an oyster cook off (judged by Julie), tastings and shucking demonstrations. Make a weekend of it and take in the floating art exhibition.

LATE

★ NOON CRONULLA FUN

Notaras Fish Markets Open Day, 47 The Kingsway, Cronulla; noon-2pm, free, 9544 0033

We all know the Cronulla Sharks can catch a football, but how are they with catching a slippery salmon? Find out at Notaras Fish Markets today, when the Sharks players strut their stuff in a few competitions. There will also be seafood taste testing, Sharks merchandise giveaways, freebies and prizes.

1PM MOSCOW CIRCUS

Great Moscow Circus, Penrith Club Paceway, cnr Ransley St and Mulgoa Rd, Penrith; 1pm, 4pm, 7.30pm, $16-$58, 0429 667 269, moscowcircus.com.au

Roll up, roll up! The Great Moscow Circus is in town. It is the big top's last weekend in Penrith, so come along to see clowning, acrobatics, contortionists and daredevils.

2PM KIDS' FILM

Kids' Screening, Australian International Animation Festival, Forum 6 Cinema, 77 Trail St, Wagga Wagga; 2pm (repeat on Sunday), kids' session $5, screenings $12, festival pass $35, 6921 6863, aiaf.com.au

With a three-minute pirate romp, a mouse that soars and a pig that will do anything to get the cookies, there's plenty to keep little minds (aged 4-7) entertained at this special kids' screening at the Australian International Animation Festival. This session includes cartoons from overseas.

2.30PM TRUE LOVE

How To Attract Your True Love And Keep It Real, Mind Body Spirit Festival, Hall 1, Sydney Exhibition Centre, Darling Harbour; 2.30pm, adult $16, conc $13, child free, mbsfestival.com.au

Looking for love? Come and hear third-generation clairvoyant Cimone-Louise's take on finding the right person. Learn to conquer stress in minutes, realise your psychic powers or balance your chakra at the Mind Body Spirit Festival. Doors open from 10am-7pm.

3PM CHAPEL JAZZ

Chapel Jazz, St James's Historic Church, cnr Tank and High Sts, Morpeth; 3pm-6pm, adult $20, conc $15, 4933 3312, chapeljazz.com

Is that the Mississippi? No, it is the Hunter River, but you could be forgiven for confusing the two this weekend, when Morpeth strikes up a tune with a series of jazz concerts. New Orleans style trumpeter Geoff Bull's Olympia Jazz Band headlines the weekend.

7PM MOD PARTY

'80s Mod Revival Party, Powerhouse Museum, 500 Harris St, Ultimo; 7pm-11pm, adult $28 (over 18s only), 9217 0111, powerhousemuseum.com/the80sareback

The '80s will be well and truly back tonight with live performances from The Introverts, Division 4 and The Sets, as well as Sydney ska pop band The Allnites. Over 18s only. Mulletts accepted.

8PM CONCERT

Diana Trask With Kings Of Country, Penrith RSL, 8 Tindale St, Penrith; doors open 8pm, $30, 4728 5200, dianatrask.com

She was the sweetheart of the pop charts but it has been 20 years since Diana Trask last graced the limelight. Technically she is here to promote her autobiography Whatever Happened To Diana Trask, but she can still hold a tune and will be popping out a few numbers with US tribute act Kings Of Country.
